

Matt Noyce

Founder - MNC Actuaries

Skills & experience

Actuarial consulting founder with expertise in life insurance, reinsurance, and AI-powered technology innovation. Matt can support you in engagement and culture, technology literacy, innovation and creativity, adaptability, and commercial acumen.

Matt Noyce is a qualified actuary, entrepreneur, and innovation leader who founded MNC Actuaries, an Australian consulting firm at the intersection of traditional actuarial practice and emerging technology. His career spans over 30 years across Australia, New Zealand, Asia, and the United Kingdom.

Matt's previous roles include serving on the Leadership Team at Swiss Re Australia & New Zealand and as Chief Pricing Officer at CommInsure. He was joint winner of the 2022 Actuaries Institute Melville Prize for research on life insurance pricing methodology.

Under Matt's leadership, MNC Actuaries was recognised as an Insurance Business 2024 Top Insurance Employer and serves as the Actuaries Institute's Diversity & Inclusion partner for 2025. The firm has developed proprietary AI-powered tools including DataShine, XL2AI, and PDS2AI that are transforming actuarial workflows, demonstrating Matt's belief that actuaries can lead in adopting new technologies.

Matt is passionate about working with people who challenge themselves and are unafraid to try new things. His mentoring philosophy centres on the principle that anything is possible for those willing to push boundaries and explore new approaches.

Matt holds a Masters Degree in Physics from Oxford University. He can provide guidance on engagement and culture, technology literacy, innovation and creativity, adaptability, and commercial acumen.
