Executive Manager, Capital Strategy & Risk Models - Suncorp Bank

Skills & experience

Financial services executive with 30+ years across superannuation, life insurance, and banking, including Appointed Actuary roles. Michael can support you in emotional awareness, communication and influence, critical thinking, adaptability, and commercial acumen.

Michael Lubke is a qualified actuary and financial services executive with over 30 years of experience across superannuation, life insurance, and banking. He currently serves as Executive Manager, Capital Strategy & Risk Models at Suncorp Bank, which is part of ANZ. His diverse career includes holding Appointed Actuary roles in life insurance, demonstrating his technical expertise and governance experience.

Michael has led teams of actuaries and quantitative analysts throughout his career, combining technical leadership with strategic thinking. He is accomplished at presenting to boards and APRA, using his experiences and skills to create value for the business and its customers. His passion lies in communicating technical content clearly to senior stakeholders to facilitate optimal commercial decisions.

As a mentor, Michael wants to help younger actuaries optimise their potential by exploring issues together and helping others learn from his experiences, both good and bad. His approach values open dialogue and shared learning, drawing on his extensive cross-sector experience to provide perspective on diverse career paths within financial services.
