

Weixuan Li

Group Head of Actuarial - Not-for-profit Mutual Health Insurer

Skills & experience

Health insurance actuary with expertise across consulting, reinsurance, and strategic leadership in general insurance and health insurance. Weixuan can support you in engagement and culture, strategic relationships, direction and purpose, adaptability, and initiative and drive.

Weixuan Li is a qualified actuary and strategic leader whose career bridges general insurance, health insurance, and reinsurance across consulting and industry roles. He currently serves as Group Head of Actuarial at a not-for-profit mutual health insurer, where he leads actuarial operations and strategic initiatives.

With over a decade of experience, Weixuan has built expertise across diverse insurance sectors. His career includes serving as Director, Strategy and Actuarial at PwC, Executive Director and Head of Actuarial and Analytics at Willis Re, and Actuarial Consultant at Finity. This breadth of experience gives him unique insight into both the technical and commercial dimensions of insurance, from pricing and reserving to strategic planning and analytics.

Weixuan's approach combines technical rigor with strategic thinking, helping organisations navigate complex challenges and deliver sustainable outcomes. His experience in the not-for-profit sector brings additional perspective on purpose-driven insurance models and member-focused value creation.

He is passionate about giving back to the actuarial profession and finds it personally rewarding to watch and help others grow. Weixuan sees actuarial mentoring as an opportunity to share valuable experience, shape the next generation of actuaries, and stay connected with emerging trends. He believes in fostering a culture of collaboration and growth within the industry, drawing on his own career journey to help mentees navigate their paths.
