

[^] Appeals must be made within one month of the incident (if a result appeal, within one week of the result being published).

^{*} Independent supporting evidence is required for an appeal under mitigating circumstances.

[#] Minor grievances or general queries about course material, tutorials, assessments, or other related educational concerns; and appealing a decision, or course result, with no irregular procedure or improper conduct of an assessment are not covered in the Policy.

ESC Education Strategy Committee